Mrs. Morris' Reply to Mrs. Olive Logan. Madem Olive Logan: Your criticisms, published in the Daily Graphic of the 9th ultimo, have come under my observation. You therein speak of the amusing scene which followed as a consequence of my absence from my photographic establishment in the Capitol when the Emperor of Brazil stopped there. You also dilated on the impecustopled there. You also dilated on the impecunically of my dress, and remarked that I were apaper apron; true. I wear such an article, not at all to enhance my fashiomable appearane, but simply as a case of necessity in order to save ten cents a day for washing. You christened me "Hannah, the shoe-binder." I was not aware that my trade was shoe-binding, or that my shoes needed the operation, or that I have any occasion to blush for following the stranger Emperor to his carriage and tendering my compliments and receiving a doff of the hat and a bow from him in return. I thought the good and sensible Emperor was worthy of the courtesy. True, I am not able to make a display of diamonds like the lady in the gallery, but do not think I need feel as much shame on that account as you should do for the insignificant criticisms published for the public by persons traveling abroad as consuls for the American people. Farewell, Dame Critic: and when you again employ your pen, let it be on some sensible subject, and one that may edify and improve the public.

Organization of a New Temperance Union.

Organization of a New Temperance Union. A number of ladies met at Wesley Chapel on Thursday, the 15th inst., at 1 o'clock, and after devotional exercises proceeded to the business of organizing; Mrs. Linville in the chair, and Miss Ker acting as secretary.

The following officers were unanimously elected.

President, Mrs. Annie M. Linville; first vice pres-President, Mrs. Annie M. Linville; first vice president, Mrs. Kate P. Noble; second vice president, Mrs. Sowden; third vice president, Mrs. Laura Barnard; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Anna L. Davidson; recording secretary, Miss. Ker; treasurer, Mrs. Clara Roach.

On motion of Mrs. Roach, it was unanimously decided that the society be known as the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution; after which the Union adjourned to meet at the same time and place next Thursday.

The Grand Temple of Honor of Maryland and the District of Columbia met in annual session at Frederick, Md., on Tuesday and Wednesday, when business of much importance to the Order in the jurisdiction was transacted. The following were elected as officers for the ensuing year: W. Sherwood, of No 5, G. W. T.; F. B. Sappington, of No. 2, G. W. V. T.; E. D. Easton, of No. 3, G. W. R., (re-elected;) J. D. Munn, of No. 1, G. W. W. R., (re-elected;) J. D. Munn, of No. 1, 26 W. Trean; W. Tyson, of No. 2, G. W. U.; W. P. Hagadara, of No. 5, G. W. Uhap; John Quinn, of No. 7, G. W. G. It was decided to hold a semi-annual session at such time and place as the G. W.T. may elect. A committee was appointed to organize divisions of juvenile Templara, and the standing committees for the year were also announced. It is expected that several new temples will shortly be organized. One is Baltimore is already about in condition for institution.

The case is fixed for to-day in court.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

College Department Commencement. ments held at Howard University was given in the college chapel. The chapel was ap-propriately decorated. Above the platform were hung flags, neatly festioned, and above the flags the interrution, "Milia gloria sine pulvere." The occasion was one that drew together a large flags the interruption, "Milia gloria sine pulvere."
The occasion was one that drew together a large and attentive sudience, the graduating exercises of the college department being the attraction. Among those present and seated upon the platform were Hon. Robert Purvis, Bishop Brown, Prof. Storum, of Wayland Semisary: General Whittlessy, Prof. Mitchell, Mesers. Wilson and Albert. Prof. Fairfield, of the college department, presided. The exercises opened with an instrumental selection, entitled "Life and Love," by Mesers. Fleet and Alston.

Prof. Whittlessy led in prayer and was followed by Miss Fisher playing a plano solo. Mr. Richard T. Moss, of Washington, D. C., offered a salutatory oration, "The Mission of the Press," and Mr. Simon P. Smith, of Columbia, S. C., delivered an address. "One Profession Enough." Mesers. Fleet and Alston played a quadrille, entitled "Skating Rink," and were followed by the following gentlemen: Mr. James H. Meriwether, of Louisville, Ky., oration, "The Bevelopment of Thought—Power," Mr. Henry R. Giey, of Raleigh, R. C., valedictory oration, "The Graduate's Responsibility." After the singing of a solo by Miss McDanleils, Prof. Fairfield presented the diplomas to the graduates, at the conclusion of which he hade an appropriate and well-timed address, at the close of which he made the graduate of 1872, and proceeded to confer the degree. This is the first time the degree has been conferred by the univariety, and was wholly unexpected, even by the graduates themselves, it having been lately decided by the board of trustoes. An instrumental selection was given and the assemblage dispersed after the benediction pronounced by Prof. Whittlesey. Annual Commencement of Alnwick Seminary, Prince George's County, Maryland. Yesterday a large party of sympathicing triends took the train from the Baltimere and Ohio depot to attend the exercises of this long-established institution, while numbers from Prince George's county wended their way to the seminary. The programme was judiciously arranged, consisting of datached recitations, vocal and instrumental selections, as well as a French comedy and an English dialogue. In the French piece entitled "L'Occasion fait le Larron" the Misses K. K. Henry, Annie F. Adams, Ada Webster and Mamie Roose unfolded in excellent style the incidents of the little play, gaining well-merited applause for their careful acting and correct pronunciation. Miss Maggie Naylor rendered in first-rate style the vocal solo "Farewell," and the Misses Lord, Gracle Adams and Hattle Jeffries contributed, in one way or another, to the success of the exer cises. But the piece of the day was the English dialogue, "The Visions of Freedom," intersperse dialogue, "The Visions of Freedom," interspersed with music, under the efficient superintendence of Professor Hayden, of this city. In this the Misses K. K. Henry, Adda Webster, Mangie Naylor, Mamie Roose, Rose Lord, Ella Lord, Hattle Jeffries, the Misses Squires and the Misses Adams all bore a creditable part, and by their graceful singing and declamation delighted their numerous friends. Then followed the distribution by the Misses Tyson, principals of the schools, who may well be congratulated upon the close of another of their many long years' work. In this institution the inculcation of the highest principles of honor and the imparting of the finest culture are constantly aimed at, and with pronounced success. We carnestly hope the worthy principals may continue to command that confidence and patronage to which their long years of experience, their admirable facilities and their painstaking efforts so justly entitle them.

Literary and Art Reception. Miss Ransom, the artist, gave another one of her delightful literary receptions at her studio on Wednesday evening, on which occasion Mrs. Lillian Roselle Messenger, the Mississipp poetess, read one of her charming poems. Mrs. Fannie B. Ward gave a thrilling experience in a coal mine two hundred feet beneath the prairie sod. Mrs. Judge De Bolt recited in her usual brilliant manner "The Bells" and "Barbara Freychute." Colonel Boudinot gave, with remarkable dignity and pathos, "The Dar-key's Prayer." Marie Le Baron, from whom a key's Prayer." Marie Le Baron, from whom a poem was promised, failed through indisposition. Aside from the usual attendants on these very enjoyable occasions, we noticed General R. B. Mitchel and Colonel Gess, of the Army of the Cumberland: Professor Giers, Colonel Capens, of Georgia; Colonel Gunter and Colonel Gause, of Arkansas; Colonel and Mrs. Daniels, with a party of friends; Mr. Hanard, of New York; Colonel Owens, Judge Burrell, from Vicksburg; Miss Bigham, from Ohlo, and others. These literary reunions will doubtless become one of the leading attractions of our Capital next winter, as Miss Ransom, herself an accomplished scholar, fine writer and most excellent artist, has the happy faculty of attracting those of kindred tastes and accomplishments, and, by her frank and gentle manner, making friends of all thus attracted. Her receptions during the past winter have been particularly noticeable for the large number of bighly cultivated and literary women always in attendance on them.

LINEN SUITS at Corner of Seventh and E streets. DIVORCED.

Desertion and Abandonment the Cause. Equity Court yesterday Judge Wyli granted a decree of divorce between Sarah J. Dempster and Hiram V. Dempster. The complainant sets forth that she is a resident of this District. and has been for two years; that she married the and has been for two years; that she married the defendant in Muskingan county, Uhlo, August 14, 1861, by Rev. A. J. Miller; that the issue of said marriage was three children; that on March 17, 1874, the defendant deserted and abandoned her and her two children, and has wholly and entirely refused and neglected to provide in any way for her and their support up to the present time. The court granted the divorce, giving her the custody of the children and alimony of $50 per month, beginning July 1, 1876.

Death of Rev. Edward W. Schon, D. D. Rev. Edmund W. Schon, D. D., presiding elder of Louisville district, Methodist Episcopal Church South, died in Louisville, Kentucky, June 8, 1876, Rev. Dr. Schon joined the M. E. Church in the Pittsburg conference in 1928, and immediately took rank as a most eloquent and popular preacher. He has maintained his popularity as one of the first pulpit orators of his-day, and but one of the first pulpit orators of his-day, and but few men occupied a more enviable reputation in this respect. He was for a number of years sec-retary of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South, and has gone down in death in the full enjoyment of a successful ministry, faithfully laboring at his post of duty to the last. He was a man of very fine social qualities, and a very at-tractive preacher.

In the Equity Court on Thursday Judge Wylie directed a decree to be and remain in the case of Maria A. Starr vs. John W. Starr, adjudging that the said Maria A. Starr was lawfully married to John W. Starr on the 24th of December, 1871; that Louis T. Starr is the legitimate child of John W. Starr and Maria A. Starr, and ordering said John W. Starr to pay slimony to his wife at the rate of $50 per month from the beginning of the suit until June 1, 1576, and after that time at the rate of $100 per month, the defendant to pay

Mean and Unwarranted. Editor National Republican: Sin: The staid Baltimore Sun of this day con tains a special dispatch from Cincinnati, in which the following flippant and vile sentences are to be turned up to-day. This distinguished personage has not declared his preference, but he is said to be for Blaine."

The low and vulgar breeding of this correspondent of the Sun is here made apparent, and that he is some kitchen sculion is evident by his choice phrases, "cook shop" and "turned up." Mr. T. W. Dempster, the Senate restaurateur, may not be a "distinguished personage." He is, however, a warm-hearted, affable gentieman, who enjoys in a large degree the well-deserved confidence and satiem of every man that has the pleasure and satisfaction of knowing him, except it may be a certain small and uncerviable class of loafers around the Capitol, who, by assuming to belong to the press, undertake most impudently to sponge on good-natured individuals like Mr. Hempster, with a view to obtain for nothing occasional lunches. Now that the Senate is not in cession, my friend has the opportunity to sitend the Republican convention, like any other American citisen, but this inct affords no escuse for any virulent penny-a-liner to alitude to him in the offensive, coarse and spiteful manner indulged in by the reckless correspondent of the Baltimore Sus.

My attention having been attracted to a testimonial from Rev. Dr. Domer, the distinguished paster of the English Lutheran church, Eleventh and H streets, this city, esrtifying to the remarkable cure of an affection of the ear by Dr. Hartley, I concluded to try the doctor's skill in a case of catarrh of very aggravated form, from which I had suffered many years past, which had seriously impaired my hearing and developed every symptom of consumption. I am happy to state that Dr. Hartley has effected a complete and radical cure, removing every vestige of catarrh, deathess and affection of the lungs, and I am now as healthy and can hear as perfectly as at any former period in my life. Dr. Hartley's remarkable success in my case justifies this testimonial, and he has my best thanks, with a more substantial evidence of my appreciation. nd he has my our.

the country the proprietor has determined to lower is charges, that all may be able to derive the benefits from like use of these justify celebrated waters.
They need no recommendation to Washingtonians, strong the strong second second second that housands who have been brought from death's door to renewed health by the use of their wonderful medicinal waters. Since last summer the Chaiybeate Spring, which was opened last year, has been thoroughly analyzed by Prof. M. R. Harden, of the V. M. L. of Virginia, and by comparison shows it to be fully as strong as "Rawley" of carbenate of from, having a small quantity more than one and a small quantity less than the other two springs. So in addition to the water that has made these springs so famous, the proprietor takes pleasure in amouncing that he can furnish those who may need to drink either separately or in councetion are commonate of iron (chalybeate) water. Inferior to uone, and equaled only by Rawley, in the State.
This at the very cheap rates, with accommodation fully up to any previous year.

Waters are not surposeed. The water of the CHALYBEATE SPRING was carefully analyzed at the Smithsonian Institution by Pofessore L. D. Gale and W. M. Mew, who say that "it is in some cery essential particulars similar to the far-famed Pyrmont Spring, in Waldeck, Germany, which has to long and so deservedly enjoyed a high reputation among physicians. It possesses a rare combination of tonic properties, with others, existing in admirable proportion, calculated to free it from some of the too well-known causes of objection to chalybeate waters."

The other Mineral Springs are specifies in the cure of dyspopsia, affections of the kidneys, calculus helminthiasis and serofula. A Sulphur Spring of good quality to within Afteen minutes' walk of the hotel. Hot and Cold Batha and an immense Swimming Pool, and a fine Bowling Alley and Billiard Room on the grounds.
